

QUID NOVI

VOLUME 22, NUMBER 1

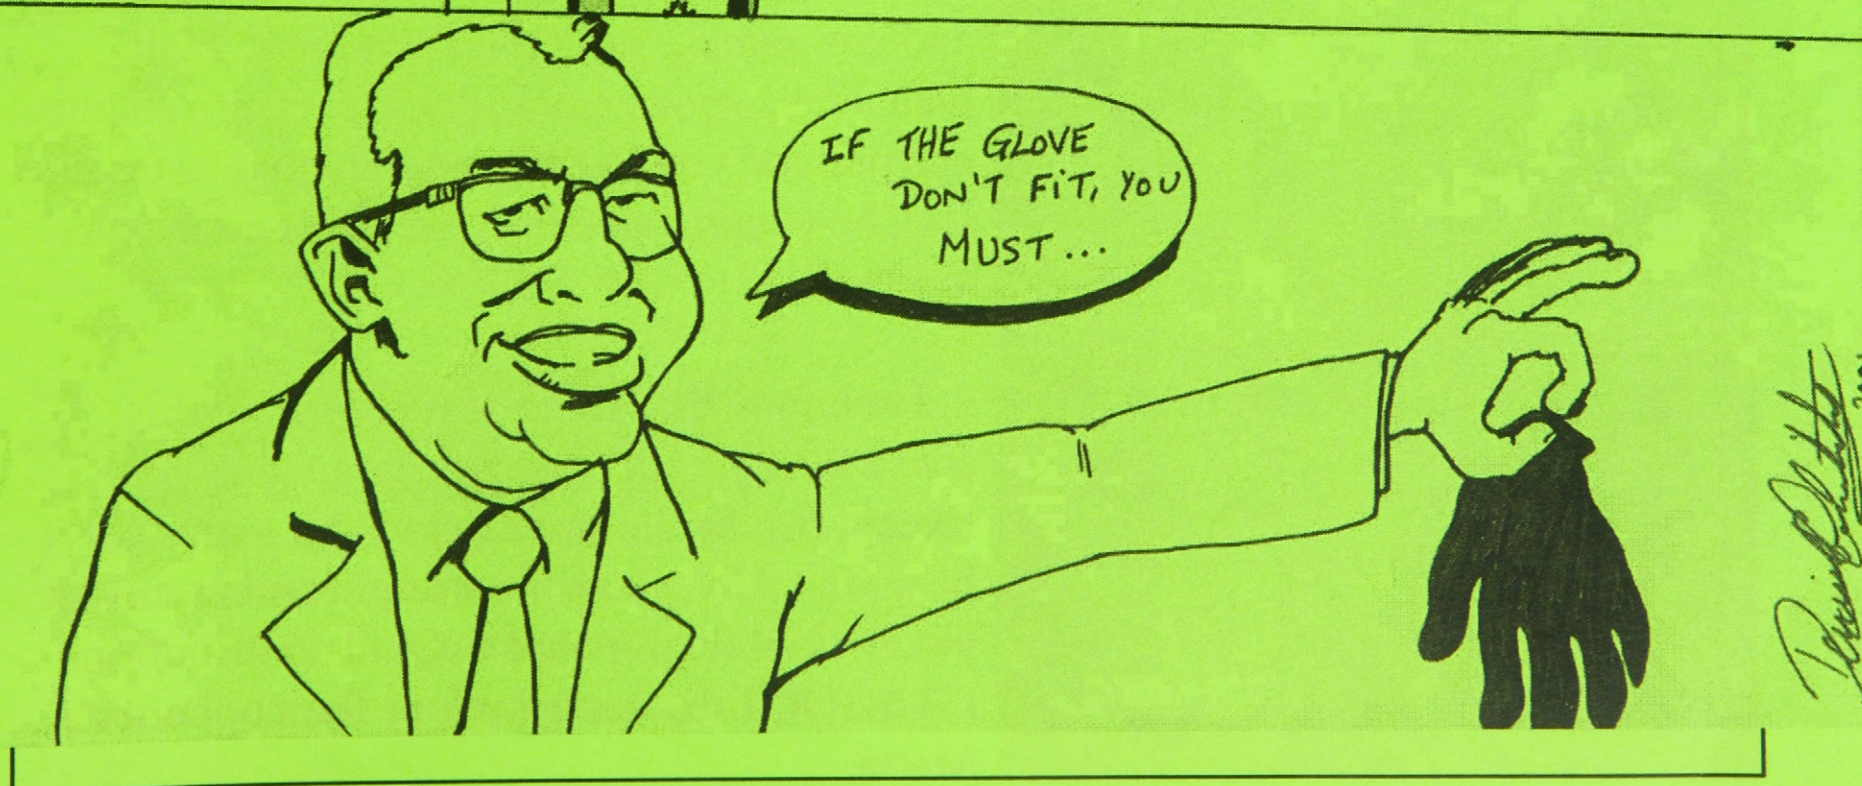

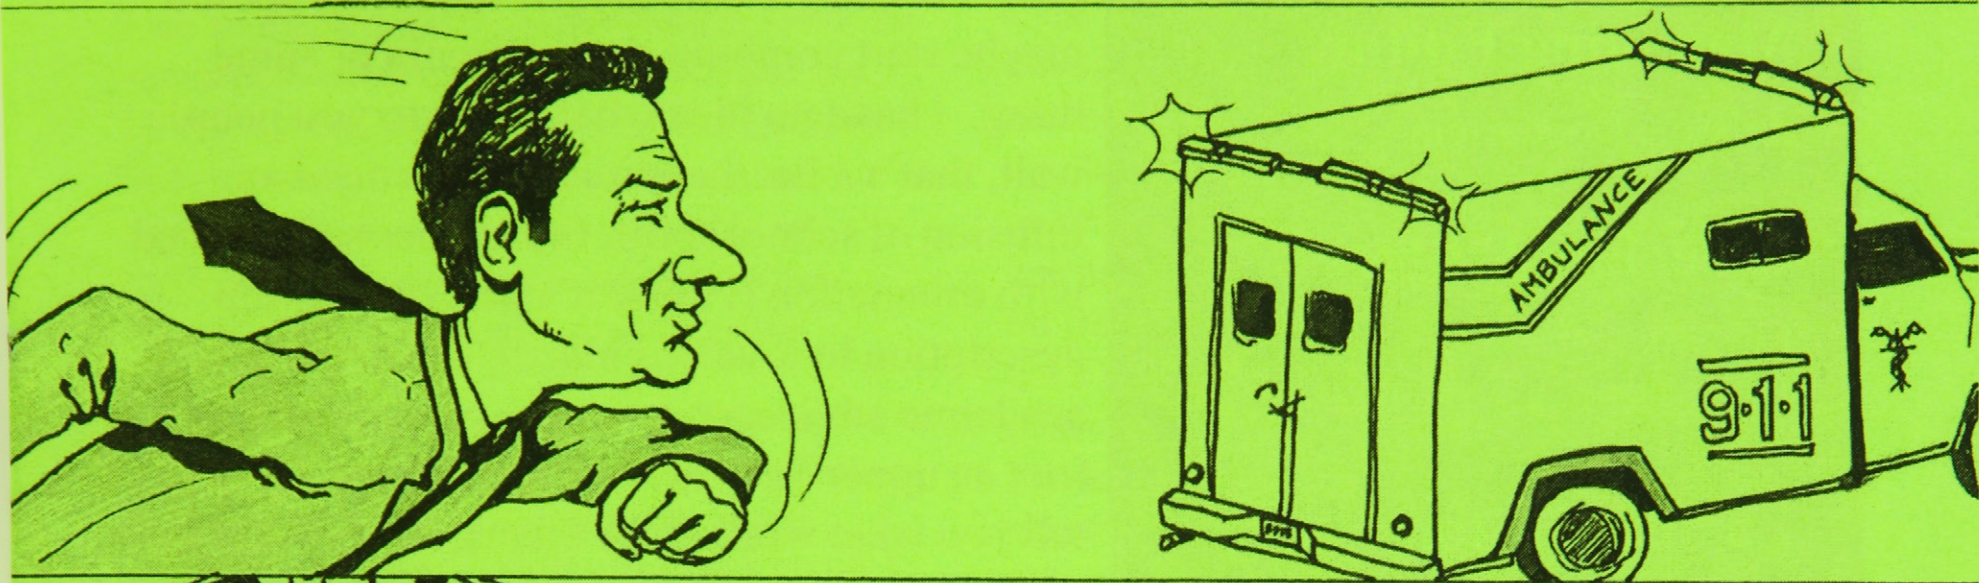

FACULTÉ DE DROIT

Université McGill University

FACULTY OF LAW

Lot 28
10

Dear newcomers, welcome to McGill Law School. Just think, in four short years, this could be you!!! (how's that to keep you motivated!!!)

mardi 4 sept 2001

QUID NOVI

Editors-in-Chief

Rebecca Hare

Marta Juzwiak

Managing Editor

Kristine Doederlein

Associate Editors

Joe Mik

Wanda Simek

Layout Editor

Nancy Charbonneau

Web Editor

Adam Allouba

Officious Intermedler

Who Cannot Let Go of Extra-Curricular Activities of Yore:

laWna Hurl

Disclaimer:

All contents copyright 2001 Quid Novi

Les opinions exprimés sont propres aux auteurs. Toute contribution doit indiquer l'auteur ou son origine et n'est publiée qu'à la discretion du comité de rédaction. Articles peuvent être envoyés au quid\_novi@hotmail.com

EDITORS' NOTES

ho hum, welcome - or welcome back - to the faculty (marta is forcing me to write this letter). so, summer isn't exactly a thing of the past but those carefree days are definitely coming to an end - i actually found myself thinking i should maybe start combing my hair again or something. i have no idea what to say to you people. wait, that's a lie. here it is - if you need an infusion of school spirit, find someone involved with orientation (i think it's part of their job description to love this place); if you need academic advice, go to someone in the office (not an upper-year student who will really only tell you what worked for them); if you want to read crazy rants and other random nonsense, pick up a copy of the quid. what else? all that regular bullshit, i guess - join clubs, make friends, don't sleep with your classmates, do coffeehouse and thompson house, read the mirror and find out montreal extends far beyond the mcgill campus, strike up conversations with random people in parks and find out that the human race has in fact set up colonies far beyond the borders of our measly planet, play intramural sports, partake in malpractice cup and law games, don't miss skit night, blah, blah, smoke crack, drink over-priced guru and pretend you like it even though it tastes like shit, be young, have fun, just don't do it near me. Becky.

... Ummmm, thanks for leaving me all this space Becky. Can't say I disagree with you Except maybe the smoke crack bit -- that can't be good. Always on the straight and narrow & always looking forward to Quid contributions (SURTOUT des contributions francophones!), Marta.

Greetings from the President of the Law Students' Association

Eric Gilman, National IV

Hello Everyone! Bienvenue à tous!

I am so excited for the year to begin. Over the summer the Orientation committee and the Law Students Association (LSA/AED) have been working like a well oiled machine. We have been working hard to make this an unforgettable year. Un gros merci à Mark Georges qui a vraiment fait tout cet été!

Pierre-Etienne Simard and Marc Edmunds (along with a team of great volunteers) have toiled so tirelessly to organize the most amazing two weeks of activities that I wish I were a first year student. Orientation is not just for first year students. It is our hope that all students will take part in the activities to set the tone for the rest of the year. I encourage you to volunteer at events and meet the newest members of our very special community. And don't forget, this year everyone is invited to the boat cruise; for the first time, the cruise is free, free, free, cheaper than cheap! (Don't forget to pick up your tickets.)

Along with a battery of events and activities (the Malpractice Cup, Golf Day, Intramural sports, clubs, Skit Night, etc.), January is sure to be a highlight in everyone's McGill experience: Law Games! If you were looking for a reason to look forward to winter in Montreal, we found it! So far this year's Law Games is looking like it will be the biggest and boldest one yet. Not only will it be a great time to showcase everything that Canada's best law faculty and Canada's best city have to offer, but it will be a time to meet fellow law students from coast to coast to coast.

C'est vrai que l'AED organise des activités incroyables, mais en plus, les membres de l'AED travaillent très fort à créer un environnement où tout le monde serait à l'aise. Un environnement où on aime étudier, apprendre, et vivre! Il faut que nous nous rappelions que le monde de droit est très intime. C'est possible que les personnes qui s'assoient à côté de toi dans tes cours peuvent, une journée, travailler avec toi ou plaider contre toi dans un procès. Alors, il est nécessaire qu'on traite tout le monde avec respect et honneur. Il est évident que si on triche ou vole, la communauté perde. Mais ce n'est pas seulement des actes explicites qui nous font mal; chaque fois qu'on ne partage pas ses notes, qu'on refuse d'aider un autre, ou qu'on exclut un autre d'une activité, les liens de notre communauté sont affaiblis. Nous sommes maintenant des membres d'une communauté, d'une famille, d'une faculté. C'est mon espoir que nous traiterons tout le monde d'égal à égal, avec une amitié sincère.

Je vous souhaite une année incroyable! S.V.P. venez me rendre visite au bureau de l'AED, à Coffee House (tout les jeudis), ou n'importe où dans la faculté.

Take care,

(Eric) Gilman

Eric's Gilman's Post Scripts to his Welcome Letter

Eric Gilman, National IV

1. Tell the Quid how you feel about on-campus sponsorship!

PS. The LSA would like to engage the entire McGill law community in a dialogue regarding the degree and nature of the presence of firms (and sponsorship) in the faculty. Seb Roy, the VP P.R., will write a piece in an upcoming Quid hoping to provoke a discussion that many of us find of critical import. Please give us some feedback on the matter – we really want to hear your opinions.

2. Help our bookstore live! (and save oodles to boot)!

PPS. The faculty bookstore is doing its best to overcome last year's trial and tribulations. It is in every student's interest that we do our best to ensure that it is a viable undertaking. Kevin McLeod, Franca Silla, Boris Savoie-Doyer, and Seb Roy have done a phenomenal job at trying to revitalize the bookstore. Remember that many books that are for sale at the main campus bookstore are also available across the street. So why pay more for your texts (and carry them up the hill) when our bookstore has many of the same titles for sale? Remember, if you support the bookstore you are supporting the LSA and therefore supporting yourself!

Apartment for Rent in Toronto

Contact: Tanja Ljubicic 416-816-7950.

Info: Great 2 bedroom condo (furnished)

15 minutes to Downtown Toronto

HEAR YE, HEAR YE!

The Law Partner's Wine and Cheese

Will Take Place on Thursday, Sept 6

In the Atrium. All Participants will Receive 2 Free Glasses of Wine,

thanks to our Sponsor, Tory's!

Come Find Your Match!

Upper year students:

IT'S NOT TOO LATE!

You can still BE A LAW PARTNER!

Offer to share a tiny bit of yourself,

just in case someone needs it

send the following information by 6pm on

Sept 5, to martamj@yahoo.com:

- 1 .Name
- 2. Year
- 3. Pre-law background (CEGEP, Undergrad, Graduate Degree, Mature Student)
- 4. Anything else which might be helpful for matching purposes (your interests, your dreams, etc.)

LAW BOOKSTORE

Located in the basement of 3647 Peel Street

Phone: (514) 398-6327

- Offering you all the casebooks you need for a successful semester!
- Offering you a wide selection of law dictionaries, reference books and commercial casebooks at unbeatable prices!

Opening September 5th!

MONDAY	11:00 – 14:00
TUESDAY	12:00 – 16:00
WEDNESDAY	13:00 – 16:00
THURSDAY	12:00 – 16:00
FRIDAY	11:00 – 14:00

DON'T MISS OUR LIQUIDATION SALE!!!

— Submit to the Quid!!! —

quid_novi@hotmail.com

Who? Anybody affiliated with the law faculty (students, professors, alumni etc.) can submit

What? Pretty much anything goes, as long as it doesn't make small children cry – we won't edit your content or style, but your grammar and spelling are fair game

Why? To share a bit of your wit, charm, and observations with fellow students and law faculty members (you can rant and complain too)

Where? You can drop off your submissions in the Quid Novi Mailbox at the L.S.A., but we prefer that you send it to quid_novi@hotmail.com

When? Submit by Friday afternoon the week
Before you want to get published

How? If possible, send your files as microsoft word attachments
Images should be in PDF, GIF or JPEG format

ORIENTATION WEEK CALENDAR

(READ THROUGH IT EVEN IF

YOU'RE NOT A FIRST YEAR —

YOU MAY WANT TO JOIN

IN THE FESTIVITIES!)

THEME: CARNAVAL!

Tuesday, Sept 4

1. Welcoming Events:

9:00 AM: Welcoming events and campus orientation for new students.

2. Boat Cruise:

(sponsor: De Grandpré Chait)

Party by night – boat leaves at 18:30 from the Quai de l'horloge ; but you will need a ticket to get on! See the guys in orange for tickets.

the Dean and many other professors will be cooking up good stuff for students. En cas de pluie, le BBQ aura lieu dans l'Atrium

Wednesday, Sept 5

1. Social Justice Luncheon

12:30 pm at the Atrium

A number of clubs, including the Environmental Club, the Human Rights Group, the Pro Bono Students of Canada, and the International Law Society will be available in the Atrium to tell you about themselves.

Food will be provided!

2. Dean's BBQ/ Oktoberfest

(sponsor:

Stikemann Elliott)

At 4:30 pm on the front lawn, near the picnic tables,

Thursday, Sept 6

Law Partner's Bacchanalian Wine & Cheese

(sponsor: Tory's)

4:30 PM at the Atrium; 2 free glasses of wine for all law partners.

Everybody who signed up for a law partner, come on by!

Friday, Sept 7

Le Mardi Gras de Borden Ladner Gervais

9:30 pm à l'Atrium; if you didn't buy the package, it's $5.00 at the door (cheap alcohol inside).

Kick off your first party at the faculty in style! It's a Friday, but we have officially named it a Tuesday like no other! Au diable les puristes qui ne cessent de répéter que le Mardi-Gras ne peut avoir lieu un vendredi!

Invitez vos ami(e)s et venez faire honneur à un des plus grands carnivals de notre monde contemporain... Plusieurs surprises vous attendront! It's your first party in the Atrium so get to know its ins and outs since you'll be spending a lot of good times there!

---

Sunday, Sept 9

African Festival – Field Day

11 am at the Reservoir Field (Below Des Pins, next to McTavish). Vous ne pouvez pas manquer le grand terrain de soccer et le centre d'épuration camouflé en château.

C'est l'heure de commencer l'année en vous activant un peu. On the program: dodgeball, volleyball, frisbee, tug of war, and egg tossing. Come for some fun in the sun and compete with other frosh groups for some Karny points. Amenez serviette et maillot de bain, car des jeux de piscine sont à l'horaire. Swimsuits but no bikinis please!

---

Monday, September 10

Mature and Cegep Students Lunch & Learn

12:30 pm at Thomson House (The Ballroom, 2nd floor of Thomson House)

New to University! Or just returning from an extended leave and would like to come find your bearings? Fear not; this luncheon is just what you need! Come for the interesting advice from upper-year, mature and CEGEP students.

---

Tuesday, September 11

Australian Croc-Hunt Pub Crawl

6:30 PM at the Atrium: $15.00 for those without an Orientation Package; $10.00 for those with a package.

Start with the Croc-Hunt to win some more Karny points and then it's time to kick back and relax with a few drinks. You'll have a Croc guide with you at all times. Vous allez parcourir plusieurs bars de la ville! Final stop at Gerts where we all celebrate a successful hunt! If you didn't participate, please join us at Gerts for party's sake!

Find your way around a few of Montreal's pubs/bars (accompanied by a guide/judge to make sure you are on the right track/not cheating!). The first team to Gerts wins a special prize, not to mention bonus Karny points for any Frosh Groups that send teams. We might not be Australian, but we're the next best thing!

---

Wednesday, Sept 12

1. Assistant Dean Academic Meeting

12:30 pm at the moot court

Assistant Dean Academic, Professor Provost and Assistant Dean (Student Affairs)

Véronique Bélanger will hold a session for all students on the new major/minor programs and to answer any questions or concerns you might have.

2. Tutorial Dinner

(sponsor: Davies Ward Phillips & Vineberg LLP)

6:30pm @ Casa Grecque (200 Prince Arthur Est, MTL). The price of the dinner is included in the incoming students' package. For those who haven't bought the package, the price is $20.00 (includes some free wine).

Ce souper vous permettra de rencontrer les étudiants que vous côtoierez dans le cadre de votre cours de Méthodologie Juridique. You will also meet with your tutorial leader – the person you cannot live without in order to survive your Legal methodology class. Ms. Cara Cameron, la coordonatrice en charge du programme, sera aussi là pour répondre à vos questions.

Thursday, September 13

Blake's Asian Coffee House

4:30 pm @ l'Atrium

This will be the first of many Coffee Houses to come! Il s'agit d'une tradition immémoriale à la faculté, et le premier de l'année aura pour thème Asian. Vous n'avez qu'à vous diriger vers l'Atrium afin d'y déguster gratuitement nourriture et divers rafraîchissements, une gracieuseté du cabinet Blake, Cassels & Graydon LLP.

Our V.P. Internal, Kathryn Yung, and the rest of the LSA crew will ensure a great time for all, week after week. Every Thursday evening, all faculty members and students are welcome to share in some drinks and music. Coffee House is a great way to chat with upper years and professors. Some free advice... Get to know them early!

Friday, September 14

The Rio de Janeiro Closing Party!

10 pm @ Club 737 (Bonaventure Metro and take the underground tunnel to 1 Place Ville Marie) People who paid for the package get a free pass to 737; all others must buy it in advance for $5.00 – it will be $9.00 at the door; Spéciaux avant minuit: 2 consommations pour 6$.

Come party on one of Montreal's exquisite rooftops! It is known to be one of Montreal's most beautiful locations. Le 737 vous donne le choix de dance the night away ou de regarder la ville de Montréal sur la terrasse de Place Ville Marie. Not a bad deal! Nous vous invitons, vous et vos amis à vous costumer pour l'occasion. Plusieurs prix (et Karyn Points) seront attribués aux meilleurs costumes.

Great Prizes for best costumes!

Summer Done Gone By!

Tony Hoffman, ALUMNUS I

Dear Faculty,

Well, it's almost September, which means, of course, that school starts again. At least, it does for those of you reading this ramble. Me? I start work. Yes. Work. What a frightening thought. Tony with actual responsibility...and business cards to boot! It's a sobering thought that I went to my last lecture ever this morning. Seven years of post-secondary education. Sure paid off. Unlike the vast majority of you, I got to spend it in the hallowed environs of Osgoode Hall in lovely downtown Toronto, trying not to flunk out of Bar School. No problems, you say? HAH! I beg to differ. A word of advice: the best thing you can do for yourself in law school is take all the courses that will help you pass the bar exams. Granted, estate planning and family law are not the most interesting areas of the law (in fact, if I were forced to practice in either of those areas, I would either go work at McDonalds or I would eat a bullet – whatever floats your boat, I say), but unfortunately, you have to know it cold for the exams. I will state, in closing, that the legal community as a whole would be best served if Osgoode Hall, and all its occupants, were somehow consumed in a massive fireball. Nobody would mourn those for whom “I have no idea, you'll have to come back in two weeks” is a standard answer to all questions including “what time is it?” I shit you not – the woman didn't have a watch, and the rest just slipped out.

On to more pleasant subjects. For those of you just arriving at the Faculty of Law at McGill, I would say this: RUN! AS FAR AND AS FAST AS YOU CAN!!...naaah. Just kidding. You're in for a treat. If I remember correctly, you have a great bunch of people running the LSA/AED for you (I know...I was partly responsible for rigging the election!) With the likes of Eric Gilman at the helm, who needs maps! All kidding aside, use them (though not in the physical sense...that would be illegal...wait, you'll learn that in second semester...forget it) – they're an invaluable resource, full of wisdom and sage advice for those of you taking your first steps into the insane Jacuzzi we call 'Law'. Also, there are the professors. Talk to them. Make them your friends. That way, they'll feel bad giving you D's on your Christmas exams. Well, maybe not, but they're useful anyway. Trust me. If nothing else, you'll learn the value of a Peppercorn (I know you don't understand what the hell I'm babbling about right now...but you will). Most of all, and I can't stress this enough, don't take the whole shebang too seriously. Laugh at yourselves, with others...hell, if you must, laugh *at* others. Whatever you do, laugh. It's important. Law School is stressful, and the most important thing you'll learn (even more important than the ins and outs of the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms) is that levity is indispensable in New Chancellor Day Hall.

As Milan Kundera wrote: "The sound of laughter is like the vaulted dome of a temple of happiness." I have made up my mind that even though I'm now far away from the faculty, I will do my best to add at least a grudging smile to your faces each and every Tuesday. Life is too short not to smile – and besides, you're much sexier if you smile.

To those of you for whom my ramblings are old hat, well....I'm baaaaaack! Now, before you throw your copy of the Quid away in disgust or set it on fire, I would ask you this : what could possibly be more amusing than watching me – figuratively, of course – stumbling stupidly through what promises to be a very amusing year as an articling student? Besides, not to toot my own horn, but my brand of vitriol isn't easy to come by. I have an unfortunate tendency to say things other people think (a drunk man's words being a sober man's thoughts, and all that), and since I have yet to land a job as a columnist for the Globe & Mail, I figure the Quid is the next best thing. So stay tuned. Rest assured that I *am* thinking of you all, and it usually brings a smile to my lips.

Pour ceux et celles d'entre vous (lire: les francophones) ayant l'impression que je vous ai oublié, surprise! Malgré le fait de m'être retrouvé à Toronto (où, je suis prêt à l'admettre, il n'existe pas énormément de culture française – ni d'ailleurs de culture tout court), je vous assure que je n'ai rien oublié. La vie à Montréal, étant donné que c'est ma ville natale, me manque énormément, et cette vie commence avec les gens qu'on rencontre au fil des jours, et au fil des cours (arf!). Je sais qu'il y a plein de gens qui me manquent actuellement et, à vrai dire, je suis un peu triste d'avoir décidé de quitter la faculté après trois et non quatre ans, et de ne pas avoir eu l'opportunité de rencontrer ceux et celles d'entre vous qui viennent de vous joindre à la communauté de la faculté. Donc, je vais essayer de vous offrir, tous et toutes, le point de vue montréalais de la vie ici à Toronto – que cela vous décourage ou vous tente, c'est un peu votre affaire. Je vais quand même faire de mon mieux d'être objectif et fidèle au code de l'écrivain – c'est-à-dire, me moquer de tout, et de mentir le plus souvent possible!

Finally, to all you jaded upper years whom I knew, shared beers and tears with, and sat for endless hours in the LSA office with: welcome back. To those whom I didn't get a chance to meet: welcome to the faculty. It'll be an experience you won't forget. Never fear. You'll hear from me again soon. Promise.

Tony

PS: On the off chance that you need/want to stay in touch and simply forgot my email address, it's creative\_paradox@hotmail.com.

Newsletter, August 30, 2001

NY.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- 1) THE US RECRUITMENT PROCESS - Updates + Procedure!
- 2) TORONTO OCI FINAL LIST - Change of date + Procedure!
- 3) LL.M. PLACEMENT - FOREIGN LAWYERS PROGRAM IN THE U.S
- 4) IN PREPARATION FOR THE RECRUITMENT PROCESSES : RESUME CLINICS AND INFORMATION SESSION
- 5) POSITIONS RECEIVED THIS WEEK
- 6) POSITIONS RECEIVED THIS WEEK (others)

- 1) THE NEW YORK/BOSTON ON-CAMPUS INTERVIEW & APPLICATION PROCESS FOR SUMMER 2002 POSITIONS AND FOR ASSOCIATE POSITIONS FOR 2002

NEW AND IMPORTANT DATA:

*** About Dickstein Shapiro Morin & Oshinsky: Their initial material indicated their firm name as "Roberts Sheridan & Kotel the New York Practice of Dickstein Shapiro's Corporate & Finance Group." Apparently, many students had trouble linking Roberts Sheridan & Kotel to Dickstein Shapiro Morin & Oshinsky. In order to simplify things, your letters can now be addressed to: Dickstein Shapiro Morin & Oshinsky LLP. The coordination is done through the Washington office but the position(s) will be in

*** There will be an important information session on the US recruitment process on Monday, September 17 at 12:30 in the Moot Court. See section # 4.

*** Hale and Dorr and Skadden Arps, NY no longer participate in the OCI. They switched to the Résumé Program instead. Please adjust your letters and plans accordingly.

*** Be strategic when planning your factum ! No extensions will be granted because of the recruitment processes.

*** The UPDATED list of participating firms with contact persons & addresses to whom cover letters should be addressed (orange sheets) and the procedure (green sheet) are available at the Career Placement Office.

In the meantime, please note that the deadline for submitting applications will be September 10, 2001. All applications must be received at the CPO (Room 42 OCDH) by 12 noon. Applications should include a cover letter (ensure it is properly addressed), a one-page résumé and all your transcripts (photocopies unless otherwise requested by the firm). All applications will be sent by courier to the firms who will review them. Firms will then communicate to the Placement Office the list of applicants they wish to interview.

Please note that you need to add

mardi 4 sept 2001

all your university transcripts (not only law) to your applications. For students coming from Cegep, it is recommend to add your Cegep transcripts.

Also note that the National Association for Law Placement (NALP) has an Open Letter to Law Students with suggestions and tips about the recruitment process. The paragraph on reimbursable expenses is of particular interest. Copies are available at the CPO.

I strongly recommend that you start working on your resumé(s)/cover letter(s) early. I am available for resumé/cover letter checks on Sept. 7.

2) TORONTO OCI - Change of deadline date + Procedure!
NEW AND IMPORTANT DATA:

*** Deadline to submit applications to the Career Placement Office:
Friday, September 14, 2001
before noon (not Sept. 17 as previously announced).

*** Sign-up day for interviews: October 10, 12:30 in the Atrium

*** Be strategic when planning your factum ! No extensions will be granted because of the recruitment processes.

***Paper copies of the final list of participating firms (pink sheet) and the "procedure sheet" (yellow sheet) are available at the CPO. Yes, everything is colour coded!!!

*** Ask for the Goodman and Carr Erratum at the CPO.

Toronto Summer Recruitment -
2001 FINAL LIST

List of participating firms
The following firms will be at the Centre de Conférence Mont-Royal (2200 Mansfield or 1000 Sherbrooke) to interview selected candidates on October 15, 2001. For contact coordinates and information on the firms, please consult the Applicant Information Booklet available at the Career Placement Office (or on the web at : <http://www.dwpv.com/students/students.html>).

Aird & Berlis LLP
(Please be advised that Sandra Bang will replace Tracey Kernahan as the Director of Student and Associate Affairs at Aird & Berlis LLP. Sandra's contact information is as follows:

Sandra Bang
sbang@airdberlis.com
416-865-4638

Please address cover letters to the attention of Sandra Bang.

Baker & McKenzie
Bereskin & Parr
Blake, Cassels & Graydon LLP
Borden Ladner Gervais LLP
Davies Ward Phillips & Vineberg LLP
Donahue Ernst & Young
Fasken Martineau DuMoulin LLP
Fraser Milner Casgrain LLP Goodman and Carr LLP (See erratum at

Tues, Sept 4 2001

Darriel A. Halton
On-Campus Coordinator
Four Times Square
New York, NY 10036-6522
dhalton@skadden.com

Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer
Dr. Michael Esser-Wellié
Heumarkt 14
50667 Cologne
Germany
Michael.esser@freshfields.com

In particular, applications from German and Austrian students.

Résumés should be sent directly to the following firms after December 1st, 2001 (for the 2002-2003 Program)

Mayer Brown & Platt
Francie Vaughn
Recruiting Coordinator
1675 Broadway
New York, NY 10019
fvaughn@mayerbrown.com

Interested students should send their CVs after January 1st, 2001. They will accept LL.M.
résumés for their Latin American Practice (Spanish/Portuguese language skills necessary).

Shearman & Sterling
Katie Rittenberry
599 Lexington Avenue
New York NY 10022-6069

will not be participating in on-campus interviews, but will be conducting all interviews on November 5 through 7, 2001. For more information, pick up the material at the CPO. Deadline :
October 5, 2001. If interested, please send your application (with a cover letter, résumé, and copies of your undergraduate and law school transcripts, as well as a list of your second year courses) to:

Jennifer Woollcombe
Summer Programme Coordinator
Crown Law Office - Criminal
720 Bay Street, 10th floor
Toronto, ON
M5G 2K1

(Brigitte's note: The information session scheduled on September 17, 12:30, Moot
Court, will be a good occasion to hear students who had the occasion to work in similar capacities last summer)

- The Federal Student Work Experience Program (FSWEP) forms are now available at the CPO or online. This is one of the best ways to get a summer position with the Federal Government.
Check: <http://jobs.gc.ca>.
Code-005 for Law Students.

- The Foreign Service
information kits arrived! They are available at the CPO.

mardi 4 sept 2001

6) POSITIONS RECEIVED THIS WEEK
(others)

- Quicklaw: Arrêtiste pigiste :
Quicklaw désire s'adjoindre les services d'un arrêtiste pigiste pour rédiger des comptes rendus de jurisprudence pour sa banque de données Jurisprudence en ligne (JEL). La personne recherchée doit être membre du Barreau ou, au moins, avoir complété la formation professionnelle théorique dispensée par l'École du Barreau.

La qualité irréprochable du français est une exigence pour l'obtention du poste. Un minimum de 12 à 15 heures par semaine est à prévoir. La rémunération est établie en fonction du nombre de pages à résumer. Les personnes intéressées peuvent faire parvenir leur CV ainsi qu'une courte lettre explicative avant le 8 septembre, par télécopieur au (514)287-0350,
à l'attention de Me Mélanie Boivin.